He was a native of this city, and was the eleventh child of Benjamin and Sarah (James) Eddy. He was born May 29, 1806, and when a boy went to Boston and learned the trade of an engraver. He had natural talent of a high order, and having a passionate love for art and all that pertains to it, became a very skillful engraver. As soon as he learned the trade he went to New York, and while engaged there he made a trip to Europe to purchase a finer set of engraver s tools than could at that time be procured in this country. While in Europe he visited the art galleries and conceived an idea that good copies of the famous paintings he saw there would sell readily at profitable prices in this country, and he invested his funds in that way. His anticipations were fully realized, and he became an extensive purchaser and seller of paintings and works of art.
