Westland Limited, New Delhi, India. Softcover. Book Condition: New. Chocolate Guitar Momos revolves around Joseph, who has been living in Guwahati for less than a year and is struggling to earn a decent living with his profession as a musician. Meanwhile, his girlfriend of five years resides in Delhi, whose interest in him slowly begins to fade, to say the least. Joseph phones Uma on their fifth anniversary to tell her about the song he sent her as a present. Uma soon blurts out that she is in love with Tonmoy, who is Josephs friend. The two fell in love during their two-day trip to Manali. Joseph has been dumped thrice so far and is now determined to find the girl whom he believes is his true soul mate. He only saw her once at a bus stop, where she smiled at him. The problem is that he doesnt know anything about her, nor does he remember what she looks like. The only thing Joseph remembers is that she wore a grey skirt. This starts Josephs quest to find his soul mate by searching through social networking websites such as Facebook and radio broadcasting, leading to a series of events that will keep the readers glued to the very end. Does Joseph find the girl? And, does she turn out to be the person he expects? This book will answer these questions and more. Basumatary has filled this novel with funny incidents packed with subtle sarcasm, which make for an interesting read.
