Excerpt: . . . 11 this expert panel, the Secretary should initiate reviews for services that have experienced substantial changes in factors that may indicate changes in physician work and identify new services likely to experience reductions in value. Those latter services should be referred to the RUC and reviewed in a time period as specified by the Secretary. Finally, to ensure the validity of the physician fee schedule, the Secretary should review all services periodically. Outpatient dialysis services Most indicators of payment adequacy for outpatient dialysis services are positive. Beneficiaries are not facing systematic problems in accessing care. Providers are increasing capacity to meet patients demand (as demonstrated by the increasing number of facilities and hemodialysis treatment stations), spending is increasing, and providers have sufficient access to capital. The quality of care is improving for some measures - dialysis adequacy and anemia status - and unchanged for others. Although most of the indicators for payment adequacy are positive, the Commission is concerned about the trend and level of Medicare margins for outpatient dialysis services. Balancing these considerations, the Commission recommends increasing the composite rate in 2007 by the projected rate of increase in the end-stage renal disease market basket less half of the Commissions expectation for productivity growth. In addition to updating the composite rate, to improve equity in payments between provider types the Commission reiterates its recommendation that the Congress eliminate payment differences between freestanding and hospital-based facilities for composite rate services and combine...
