Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Religious Organizations, and Slavery We do not promise to entrance the mind by an array of new, beautiful and brilliant thoughts, and glowing description; for we have another work to accomplish, more serious and more rational. It is to state truths new and old, clearly and strongly, and to make them so bear upon a single point as that duty in that direction should be no longer doubtful, and the point referred to is one of no common interest. At this day, as it respects the church of our land, it is the question of questions. It is a well known fact that our principal ecclesiastical organizations, and leading religious institutions, are charged with being so connected with the sin of slavery as to have become unworthy of our confidence; and it is affirmed that those who act from high Christian principle and enlightened views, can not consistently co-operate with them. These charges are brought, not by the enemies of religion alone, but by many of its truest friends; not only by enthusiasts and those...
