We are waging with them a battle of commerce, and with a bombardment of example. England and Europe respect our gallant young men, as gallant as any that ever graced her soil, or the soil of any country on the, earth. She respects them as we did when the war called for them, and they responded--as we respect the brave veterans the war made of them. Their system of standing armies will never be battered down by American cannon balls, but it is already tottering to its fall under the constant bombardment of American example. France is a Republic with her Chambers of Deputies, and is one of the strongest Nations of Europe. Germany elects her Federal Councils by States. Even distant China is modeling her affairs upon our methods. Already she builds telegraphs and railroads that a few years ago she drove...
